

Clayton Visual Arts

Presents

KIDS ART CAMP, JUNE 15-19

for children ages 9-12

9 a.m. – noon

at Eye of the Eagle, 131 East First St., Clayton

Instructor: Clayton artist Kelly Sari

Fee: $125*

Monday: Charcoal/pencil drawing.

Teacher will demonstrate line, shading and using an eraser to draw geometric shapes, and students will practice these and learn to draw a rabbit.

Tuesday: Watercolor postcard.

Teacher will demonstrate how to use a brush, painting techniques for painting lines, shading, blending, mixing color, washes and fixing mistakes. Teacher will demonstrate how to draw and paint a bird using circles and triangles, and students will draw and paint a live bird using pencil or charcoal and paints.

Wednesday: Oil painting and crayon-resist technique.

Teacher will demonstrate use of oil paints and crayon-resist technique. Students will draw and paint a live bird or free choice, using crayon resist or oil paints.

Thursday and Friday: Mosaic stepping stones.

Students will design a pattern for their stepping stones on precut paper. Teacher will demonstrate how to transfer the design onto the stepping stone and show students how to place tiles. Teacher will demonstrate how to grout, and students will finish their stepping stones.

Students will display their work at the end of the Friday class.

Students should wear an old shirt/apron to protect clothing and should bring a snack and drink each day.

All art supplies will be furnished. Some scholarships are available through school art teachers.*

Registration deadline is April 17. Class size is limited to 12 students.

( If there is sufficient demand, a second camp will be offered July 27-31. Please indicate on the form if you would be willing to attend the second camp if the first one is filled.)

Please send check or money order payable to Clayton Visual Arts, along with registration form to Workshops, Clayton Visual Arts, PO Box 698, Clayton, NC 27528.
